

The suit on the right is what started
Little Extensions!

My son had already been in a 000
for awhile & the suit his wearing is a 0000 2006!

Welcome to my personal scrap book,
come & see where Little Extensions all began!

My son enjoying the first prototype
I made!

Left is a Pumpkin Patch New Born Right is a 000, which my son was wearing at the time in 2006

As you can see there is quite a difference in size.
2006

This was my second test using the prototype!

I love this, I get to show off my beautiful little boy!
2006

Okay, am being very basest, but he's just the most gorgeous little boy in the whole world!!!
2006

I knew I had come up with a product that all parents can use and benefit from!
Now I it was time to test LE with other parents!

6 months old

As you can see my little man looks very comfortable wearing the first prototype of LE.
2006

I was very surprised when I was able to fit the New Born size on my very long boy!

Making the extensions for the mothers in 2007

All my little extensions
2007

After locating mothers who were willing to trial my new & innovating idea I had the long task of making 300 hundred extensions!

My lounge room became my very own little manufacturing warehouse!
